

31 August 2005

Mr Peter Alcock
The Clerk of the House of Assembly
Parliament House
Hobart TAS 7000

Dear Mr Alcock,

Tasmanian Ombudsman – Annual Report 2004/5

I write to correct an error on page 4 of the Annual Report for 2004/5, laid before the House of Assembly on Thursday 25 August 2005 by the previous Ombudsman, Ms Jan O’Grady.

The error lies in the sentence on that page which reads –

“The number of complaints against Tasmania Police has increased from 38 last year to 69 this year.”

The relevant sentence should say –

“The number of complaints against Tasmania Police has increased from 54 last year to 82 this year.”

You will note that these corrected figures align with the figures given with respect to the Department of Police and Public Safety in Table 3 of Appendix A to the Report.

I am providing a copy of this letter to the Attorney-General, the Minister for Police and Public Safety and the Commissioner of Police. I also intend to post a copy of it on my Office’s website, for the information of the public.

Yours faithfully,

Simon Allston
Ombudman.

Copy to: The Hon David Llewellyn MHA, Minister for Police & Public Safety;
Mr Richard McCreadie, Commissioner of Police;
The Hon Judy Jackson MHA, Attorney-General.

31 August 2005

Mr Scott McKenzie
The Clerk of the Legislative Council
Parliament House
Hobart TAS 7000

Dear Mr McKenzie,

Tasmanian Ombudsman – Annual Report 2004/5

I write to correct an error on page 4 of the Annual Report for 2004/5, laid before the House of Assembly on Thursday 25 August 2005 by the previous Ombudsman, Ms Jan O’Grady.

The error lies in the sentence on that page which reads –

“The number of complaints against Tasmania Police has increased from 38 last year to 69 this year.”

The relevant sentence should say –

“The number of complaints against Tasmania Police has increased from 54 last year to 82 this year.”

You will note that these corrected figures align with the figures given with respect to the Department of Police and Public Safety in Table 3 of Appendix A to the Report.

I am providing a copy of this letter to the Attorney-General, the Minister for Police and Public Safety and the Commissioner of Police. I also intend to post a copy of it on my Office’s website, for the information of the public.

Yours faithfully,

Simon Allston
Ombudman.

Copy to: The Hon David Llewellyn MHA, Minister for Police & Public Safety;
Mr Richard McCreadie, Commissioner of Police;
The Hon Judy Jackson MHA, Attorney-General.